

eHealth Announces the Appointment of Beth A. Brooke as a New Independent Director

August 29, 2019

SANTA CLARA, Calif., Aug. 29, 2019 /PRNewswire/ -- Today eHealth, Inc. (NASDAQ: EHTH) (eHealth.com) announced that Beth A. Brooke has been appointed an independent director to the company's Board of Directors.

Ms. Brooke served as the Global Vice Chair of Public Policy for EY (formerly Ernst & Young) from 2007 to June 2019, and as EY's Americas Vice Chair of Public Policy, Sustainability and Stakeholder Engagement from 2001 to 2007. She also served as EY's Global Sponsor for Diversity and Inclusion.

Under the Clinton administration, Ms. Brooke served in the U.S. Department of the Treasury, where she was responsible for tax policy matters relating to insurance and managed care. She also worked extensively on health care legislative reform efforts.

Ms. Brooke was a member of the U.S. delegation to both the 53rd and 54th United Nations Commission on the Status of Women. Forbes included Ms. Brooke in its annual list of the world's 100 most powerful women eleven times.

"Beth is known and respected across industries and in public policy circles as a visionary, change-making leader," said eHealth CEO Scott Flanders. "I am confident eHealth will benefit from her deep knowledge and hard-won expertise in policy matters, corporate development, strategy and accounting. I'm very proud to welcome her to our Board of Directors."
